  - i. Applicant(s) must demonstrate their ability to pay rent on time and meet the requirements of occupancy
  - ii. Length and type of employment is an important economic consideration in the approval process
  - iii. Lower ratings on school loans and medical references may be acceptable in certain situations with proper explanation
  - iv. Applicants with a history of unpaid judgments or liens are usually denied
  - v. Comments from former landlords are important selection criteria—including rental payment history, violations of policies, violations of lease, history of disruptive behavior, housekeeping habits, etc.
  - vi. Applicants with any evictions in their rental history are typically denied
